JAMES GILLESPIE'S
HIGH SCHOOL

Dear Friends of James Gillespie's High School,

It is my pleasure to extend a very warm welcome to you all this evening. Thank you for taking time out of your busy schedules to join the staff and pupils of James Gillespie's High and local schools to celebrate Christmas 2012 in the Usher Hall.

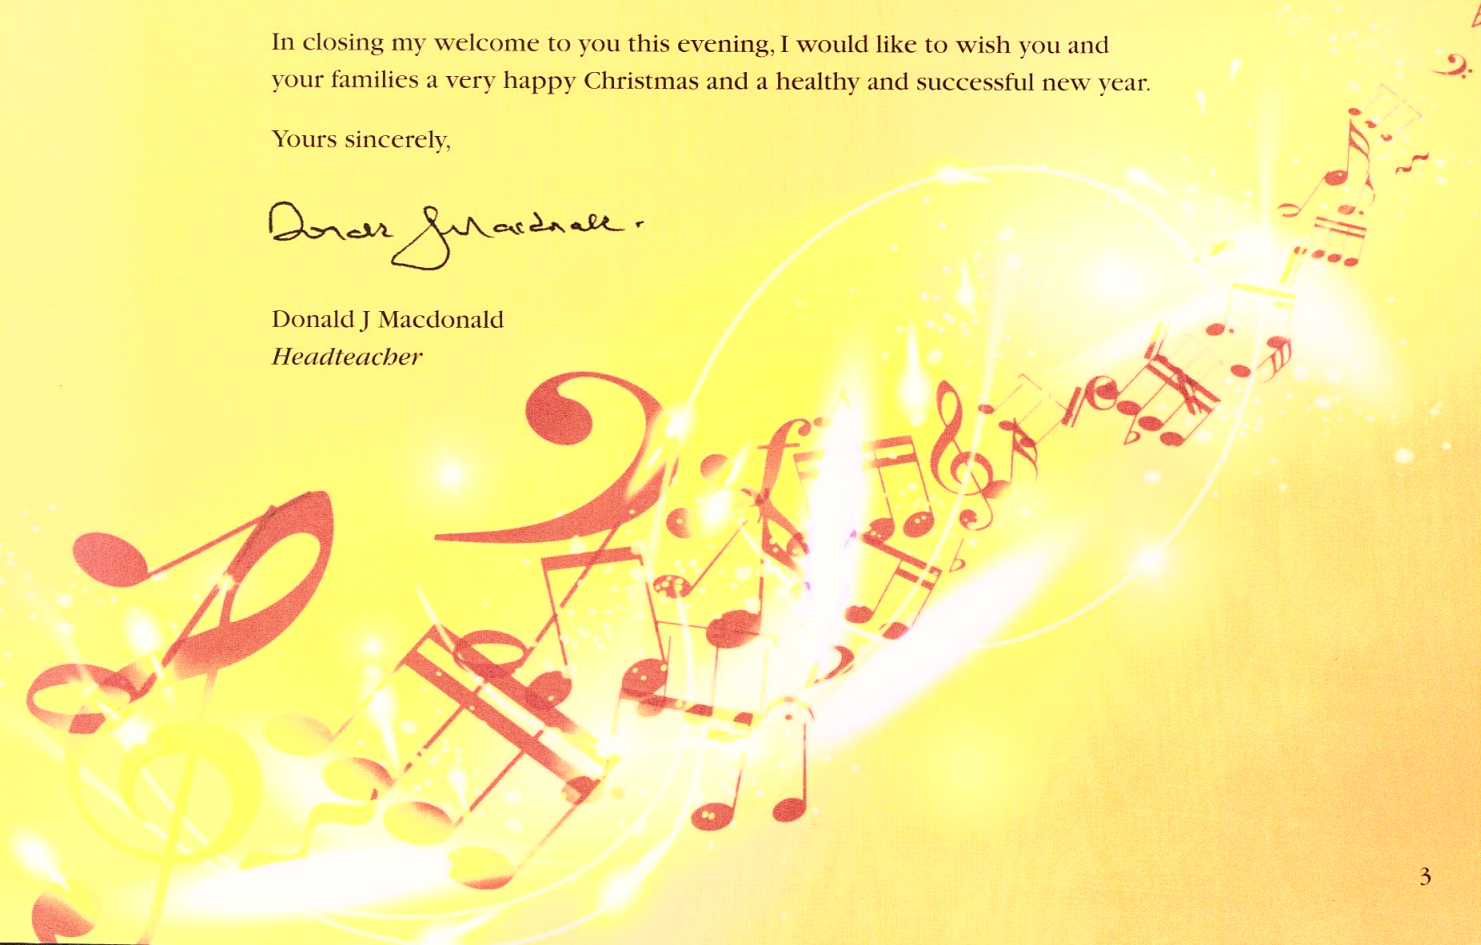

Christmas is traditionally a time for getting together with family and friends and we are thrilled to have you with us tonight in this wonderful hall. All of the pupils performing, both Primary and Secondary, have worked hard with their teachers over the past few months to prepare for this evening. The variety and quality of tonight's performers provide evidence of the cultural diversity we have in our ranks and testament to the excellent teaching in our various schools.

I am delighted that we have returned to the Usher Hall to celebrate Christmas with you. Our thanks go to Morrison Construction, builders of the new school, for their sponsoring of this concert tonight, thereby enabling us to hold our Carol Concert in this wonderful venue. We look forward to moving in to our new school in due course and welcoming you there at our official opening. To help us celebrate the many achievements by Gillespie's pupils over the years we are thrilled to welcome so many former pupils to our concert. Our alumni choir will roll back the years by singing the old school song 'Fidelis et Fortis'. Wouldn't it be fantastic if everyone joined in!

In closing my welcome to you this evening, I would like to wish you and your families a very happy Christmas and a healthy and successful new year.

Yours sincerely,

Donald J Macdonald
Headteacher

OUR STORY SO FAR

Through the centuries Edinburgh has benefited from the philanthropy of numerous wealthy Edinburgh merchants. On his death in 1797, James Gillespie, whose fortune had been made from tobacco importing and snuff production at his Spylaw mills, bequeathed a part of his fortune to endow a hospital for the poor of Edinburgh.

What seems today to be a small bequest of £12,000 funded a hospital and a small school within the same grounds, not for the elite but for those who had no access to care or education.

The original school, which opened in 1803, on part of the hospital site, was situated at what is now Gillespie Crescent and was a most imposing, almost Gothic Victorian building in its own grounds. Sepia photographs from the time show ranks of desks with attentive pupils in starched pinafores busy at a wide variety of classes.

Over the next century the school quickly grew and demand for places caused an urgent need for a new and larger building; thus in 1914 the school moved to the recently vacated Boroughmuir building at the top of the links. It later separated its connection with the boys school and became James Gillespie's High School for Girls.

By the 1960s it was clear that yet again the Secondary School needed more space; the green site off Lauderdale Street, the grounds of Bruntsfield House, had been acquired in the 1940s by the council and had been used for many purposes including an ARP station during the Second World War. This was now chosen as the home for the Secondary School. The design for this new school, our current school, incorporated the historic building and also retained some local references in the names of the new buildings and school houses, Gilmore, Roslin, Spylaw, Warrender. The unicorn badge and 'Fidelis et Fortis' our school motto, taken from James Gillespie's family coat of arms, continued as previously. The architects created a unique campus style layout of buildings, designed to retain many of the existing trees and to give the school 'the essentially domestic character that is not characteristic of many new schools' The school opened in 1966 to great fanfare and to the great delight of every Gillespie girl lined up in their distinctive maroon box hats to greet the then Queen Mother. These lively girls, typified by the 'Miss Brodie girls' in the Muriel Spark novel, were joined in 1973 by a new cohort, when the school welcomed boys back with its new co-educational status.

Again the school roll spilled over and it needed to occupy two sites including the old Darroch school in Gillespie Street. The Lauder building and new sports hall were then erected at the main campus, and the 1960s buildings were refurbished to allow the whole school to be on one site but with vastly improved facilities for subjects like PE.

Over the 210 years of its history the school has retained a unique status amongst Edinburgh people; whatever its physical location, with a persistent ethos of high educational standards and valuing each student's individual talents and strengths. The multi-cultural mix which has evolved over its long history has been a vast source of strength to the school and a cause for its annual celebration at the Diversity productions. A sense of ownership and pride in the school is amply illustrated by the sustained school roll, the continuity of pupils returning as teachers and of ex-pupils, now as parents, again choosing their old school for their own children.

Now the 1960s buildings are showing their age; modern teaching methods and ideology demand more varied and flexible space, but the name and location will remain the same. James Gillespie's 18th century vision for inclusion and high quality education will endure, but in its 21st century building context as the new school construction commences in July 2013.

HARK THE HERALD ANGELS SING

Hark the herald angels sing
"Glory to the newborn King!
Peace on earth and mercy mild
God and sinners reconciled"
Joyful, all ye nations rise
Join the triumph of the skies
With the angelic host proclaim:
"Christ is born in Bethlehem"
Hark! The herald angels sing
"Glory to the newborn King!"

Christ by highest heav'n adored
Christ the everlasting Lord!
Late in time behold Him come
Offspring of a Virgin's womb
Veiled in flesh the Godhead see
Hail the incarnate Deity
Pleased as man with man to dwell
Jesus, our Emmanuel
Hark! The herald angels sing
"Glory to the newborn King!"

Hail the heav'n-born Prince of Peace!
Hail the Son of Righteousness!
Light and life to all He brings
Ris'n with healing in His wings
Mild He lays His glory by
Born that man no more may die
Born to raise the sons of earth
Born to give them second birth
Hark! The herald angels sing
"Glory to the newborn King!"

FIDELIS ET FORTIS

Our school through many a year renowned,
Today thy praise we sing.
Right gladly may its notes resound,
While we our homage bring.
To our great founder whose great name,
Gillespie, as our own we claim,
We owe whate'er we have of fame
Fidelis, Fidelis et Fortis.

For every lesson we have learned,
For every friendship made.
The School our gratitude has earned,
Where we have worked and played.
From those before us here enrolled,
We have the torch aflame to hold,
High may we bear it as of old,
Fidelis, Fidelis et Fortis.

This is the school song, it has been in existence since the 1940's and sung by thousands over the years. Previous generations of pupils performed this song on special school occasions such as the annual founder's day and concerts and prize giving held here in the Usher Hall.

As with many school songs, the words were written to instil a passion and pride in being part of a 'special family'. It is a song that the Alumni Choir still take pride in today.

THE FIRST NOEL

The First Noel, the Angels did say
Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay In fields where they lay a-keeping their sheep
On a cold winter's night that was so deep.
Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel
Born is the King of Israel!

They looked up and saw a star
Shining in the East beyond them far
And to the earth it gave great light
And so it continued both day and night.
Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel
Born is the King of Israel!

And by the light of that same star
Three Wise men came from country far
To seek for a King was their intent
And to follow the star wherever it went.
Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel
Born is the King of Israel!

Then let us all with one accord
Sing praises to our heavenly Lord
That hath made Heaven and earth of nought
And with his blood mankind has bought.
Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel
Born is the King of Israel!
