

THE SONG
OF
JAMES GILLESPIE'S HIGH SCHOOL

FIDELIS ET FORTIS

Words by ANNIE S. KING GILLIES

Music by
J. D. MACRAE

With movement, majestically

Our For

School through many a year re-nowned, To-day thy praise we sing Right ev-'ry les-son we have learned For ev-'ry friend-ship made The glad-ly may its notes re-sound While we our hom-age bring To School our gra-ti-tude has earned Where we have worked and played From cresc.

our great founder, whose great name - Gil - les - pie as our own we claim We - those be - fore us here en - rolled We have the torch of fame to hold

ff owe what-e'er we have of fame, Fi - del - is, Fi - del - is et fort - High may we bear it as of old, Fi - del - is, Fi - del - is et fort -

1. 2.
is. is.
