

Two of the JGHS buildings were named by pupils after prominent local individuals, one with a close connection to the school, former pupil and author Muriel Spark, and athlete Eric Liddell who represented Edinburgh, Scotland and GB at the 1924 Olympics. The Muriel Spark Building and the Eric Liddell Building, Both individuals also now have paths on Bruntsfield Links named after them.

JGHS Muriel Spark Building - Expressive Arts

Muriel Spark Walk (2018) - Bruntsfield Links, Bruntsfield Terrace to Whitehouse Loan – opened by Olga Wojtas

Councillor Melanie Main, Headteacher Donald Macdonald, Olga Wojtas, Allison Naismith, and Jean Knox

The Muriel Spark Society: The Muriel Spark Society

JGHS Eric Liddell Building – Sports

Eric Liddell Way (2024), Bruntsfield Links, Bruntsfield Terrace to Whitehouse Loan – ceremony 29 April 2024 – opened by Darcy Graham

John Macmillan, Sue Caton, Councillor Marie-Clair Munro, Darcy Graham
Eric Liddell’s niece, Sue Caton, is a former pupil of JGHS

The Eric Liddell 100 - The Eric Liddell Community

A legend, A legacy, A lifetime of inspiration